I, Voyager

Nevermore

If you view life as a mission
For truth and purity in vision
You can become as the anointed
And fade away from the disjointedIn observation, I analyze
All the aspects of humanity that I despiseI am the voyager
I have tasted pleasures of the flesh
And drunk the pleasures of the mind
To reach the point I've attained
Clear focused and definedThose who don't create dictate
The structure of our world and preach hate
Drifting out of languid boredom
To destroy the structure of our kingdomIn observation, I analyze
All the aspects of humanity that I despiseI am the voyager
I have tasted pleasures of the flesh
And drunk the pleasures of the mind
To reach the point I've attained
Clear focused and definedIf you live life draped in sorrow
You will destroy the path we follow
Take my hand and walk in wonder
The patterns spin in random orderIn observation, I analyze
All the aspects of humanity that I despiseI am the voyager
I have tasted pleasures of the flesh
And drunk the pleasures of the mind
To reach the point I've attained
Clear focused and defined
I am the voyager
I, Voyager
