

Maureen

Jim Reeves

All alone tonight I dream in my land of an island far across the sea
A little bit of heaven they call Ireland where an angel waits for me
Maureen Maureen my heart is still with pain
To be with you and to hold you in my arms again
In all my dreams I dream of you Maureen
And the misty moonlit meadows and the hills of green
The hills that heard us whisper the secrets of our heart
The hills that heard us promise that we would never part
Maureen Maureen someday white sails will gleam
And you'll know I'm back to stay for evermore Maureen
