Run for Your Life

embrace today

I wont let it tear me down.
everything burns inside,
broken thoughts race through my mind of love, depression and hatred.
and there is no escape.
run for your fucking life.
twisted and beaten down,
but there is no excuse to destroy what is so pure.
burning in your fucking hell.
you live by the choice youve made
but there is no excuse to destroy what is so pure.
and there is just one thing.
i never told you.
you meant the fucking world to me,
but when you turned it around you became a memory.
i'll turn my fucking back on you.
there is one choice STRAIGHT EDGE there is one thing STRAIGHT EDGE
i wont turn my back STRAIGHT EDGE.
there is just one...one fucking choice.
