Live or Die

Hellyeah

Trust or treason,
Honesty or a lie
Find in some reason, do we live life or die
Love or Hate
worship or Deny
Pleasure or pain do we live life or die
Its time for a decision
You have to make a choice
You can take a vow of silence
Or raise your fucking voice
A warrior or a coward
Thats on you as a man
I choose to fight in riot
Of a lion not the Lamb
Get up,lay down or fight
Stand up, live life or die.
You keep thinking how were different
Comparing all our past
Or contemplate for eternity inside your nothingness
I choose to be extreme.
But thats just who i am
Fuck the choice of playing safe
I lay it all on the line.
Outlaw, old school,I stand here on the stage,
True grit, no bullshit,Say it to your face.
The new way , bedroom, fearless and two faced,psycho,
Get up, lay down or fight,
Stand up, live life or die.
Trust or Treason
Honestly or a lie,
Find in some reason do we live life or die?
Love or hate
Worship or deny
Pleasure or Pain ,Do we live life or die?
