Out of Control

The Ghost Inside

It appears that we can't rely on common sense
Let's act our age and turn the page on this intolerance
Because we're not meant to live like this. By-products of ignorance

This is out of control, it's out of control, it's gotta go. You're scared of what you don't know
I'll say this over again, and over again, until it ends. A house divided will never stand

Always failing to be accepting cause hatred stems from uncertainty
Speaking down from above casts a shadow on the ones in search of the sun
You think you're better than me? Your words of "wisdom" are spreading disease
But you won't get the better of me. Walk in these shoes before you trample my feet

This is out of control, it's out of control, it's gotta go. You're scared of what you don't know
I'll say this over again, and over again, until it ends. A house divided will never stand

We tear each other down to build ourselves up. A system failure, enough is enough
"Cause in a world this shaky and unstable, we've got to be less fucking hateful"
Knuckles white. This is beyond aggression
Knuckles white. Because we need new direction

This is out of control, it's out of control, it's gotta go. You're scared of what you don't know
I'll say this over again, and over again, until it ends. A house divided will never stand
This is out of control, it's out of control, it's gotta go. You're scared of what you don't know
I'll say this over again, and over again, until it ends. A house divided will never stand
