Next 5 Minutes

Steven Curtis Chapman

I can reminisce about the 'already'
I can worry and fret about the 'not yet'
But when it all comes down I know it really Really all comes down to the 'right now'
So right now, I?m livin' the next five minutes
Like these are my last five minutes
?Cause I know the next five minutes may be all I have
And after the next five minutes turn into the last five minutes
I?m takin' the next five minutes, startin' all over again, yeah
Startin' all over again
Every moment God is givin' is precious
Every heartbeat, every breath I take
We?ll never have them back once they?ve left us
There will never be another 'right now'
So right now, I?m livin' the next five minutes
Like these are my last five minutes
?Cause I know the next five minutes may be all I have
And after the next five minutes turn into the last five minutes
I?m takin' the next five minutes, startin' all over again

This is the day, this is the hour
This is the moment the Lord has made
I?m livin' the next five minutes
Like these are my last five minutes
?Cause I know the next five minutes may be all I have
And after the next five minutes turn into the last five minutes
I?m t-takin' the next five minutes, startin' all over again
I'm startin' all over again, gonna start it all over again, yeah
Gonna start it all over again, oh yeah
I?m livin' the next five minutes
Like these are my last five minutes, yeah
I?m livin' the next five minutes
I'm gonna live, I'm gonna live
Like these are my last five minutes
I?m livin' the next five minutes, oh yeah, yeah
Wanna live, I gotta live, I'm gonna live, I wanna live
I gotta live like these are my last five minutes
