

The Devil

Benton Paul

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Don't tell me I'm not good enough
I'll be my own judge
And tell me I won't make the cut
I'm passing you up
Here me, I am good enough
Don't need none of your love
Here me, I'll turn the volume up And sing it loud
Sing it loud and reach the crowd
Here when I say
You'll be lookin' up to me one day, one day, yeah And, and please, you don't have the strength
I'm here, here to stay
So, tell me I don't have a place
No matter what you say, I'm on my way
You'll see, that's not how to play
Just leave before it's too late
You'll see when I finish up the brace I'll sing it loud
Sing it loud and reach the crowd
Here when I say
You'll be lookin' up to me one day, one day, yeah I don't believe in revenge
I don't believe it brings an end
But I do believe in truth
And the truth is I've come to this
Everytime I need some confidence I shout it out
And sing it loud and reach the clouds
Here when I say, yeah
You'll be lookin' up to me one day
