I Feel Nothing

The Pierces

Now no time to discover
All the things we were gonna be
And no way to recover
All the pieces of you and meNow my life is calling
With no way to tell where it's goingMaybe you'd want me back this time
And maybe you'd stay
Maybe you'd want me back this time
But baby, I sayI feel nothing, I feel nothing
I feel nothing, I feel nothing
I feel nothingI know that somewhere inside me
You're not totally gone
But I've not yet decided
If it's right or it's wrongNow it seems you're calling
Leave a message after the toneMaybe you'd want me back this time
And maybe you'd stay
Maybe you'd want me back this time
But baby, I sayI feel nothing, I feel nothing
I feel nothing, I feel nothing
I feel nothingWho's to say what happens next?
Momma told me never to say never
Who's to say what happens next?
Who's to say, I'll feel like this forever?I feel nothing, I feel nothing
I feel nothing, I feel nothing
I feel nothing
