

Down

Rick Springfield

Down, you've been down to the river in black
Feeling like you're drowning again
It's as real as a heart attack
Up, there like a mountain you stand
Your body keeps remembering when
But your soul keeps fading to black
And I know that you're hurt, you're betrayed inside
I wanna be there when our worlds collide
Down
I'm never gonna let you down
I wanna be the one who stands his ground
I wanna be that man
So low, you never felt so broken
You're dreaming when you try to pretend
But you'll run and you'll never look back
Baby, life is hope, it's a beautiful thing
Give me some rope and I'll make you a swing
For the little girl in you
Down
I'm never gonna let you down
I wanna be the one who stands his ground
I wanna be that man
Down
Yeah, hell-bent or heaven-bound
I'm walking on holy ground
I'm never gonna let you down
Here nobody leaves without a scar
The deepest cuts will make you who you are
Down
I'm never gonna let you down
I wanna be the one who stands his ground
I wanna be that man
Down
Either hell-bent or heaven-bound
I'm walking on holy ground
I'm never gonna let you down
I'm never gonna let
I'm never gonna let you
No, I'm never gonna let you down
