

Tomorrows Unknown

Prayers

In the garden of your mind, you see and wait for the right one to come, In the day you are no one, in the night you are someone.

I've been told that my story is old, but not the first to walk on this road my senses are blind, my souls were gold, tonight am I wanted- tomorrows unknown.

You've slept with less so easily, turn and desire into destiny. If I touched you...would you scream?
The thought of so bewilders burn.

You've loved your heart and thrown away the key, keepin' the safe away from me and tonight am I wanted.
Cause tonight am I wanted- tomorrows unknown.

Don't be deceived by the words of your peers, i've died and cried so many tears and tonight am I wanted. Cause tonight am I wanted- tomorrows unknown.

Are you waiting for the day to come home, I'm sick of waiting- instead the cure, instead the cure, instead the cure. Cause tonight am I wanted- tomorrows unknown.

Tonight am I wanted- tomorrows unknown, tonight am I wanted- tomorrows unknown, tonight am I wantedtomorrows unknown, tonight am I wanted- tomorrows unknown.
