Sometimes I Wonder Why

Anita Baker

Sometimes I wonder why
I go on loving you this way
When I'm not sure that you are sure
That you will stay
Sometimes I wonder why
I go on hurting like I do
I guess this heart ain't very smart
It wants no one but you
But when I lay in your arms
Child, this isn't pretending
This is a real fairy tale
With a happy ending
This tightrope that I walk
A tightrope without a net below
And if I fall, child, I'll just fall
I want no one but you
Umm, but when I lay in your arms
Child, this isn't pretending
This is a real fairy tale
With a happy ending
Darling, this tightrope that I walk
A tightrope without a net below
If I fall, child, I'll just fall
Because I know, I know I'll love you till I die
Sometimes I wonder why
