

The Final Sacrifice (non-album track)

Avantasia

Staring into the lake, watching forever sake
Voices screaming in fear
Crying like at the stake in the fiery waves I can see all the sorrows
And the suffering howl an angel of pain
Centaur's taking its toll, live my life in Hades On the souls, they left they're mortal flame
It fits being dead or not
All the deaf who did not hear the truth Get ready for the Brimstone
Get the blisters on the ice
The power of the spirit was the final sacrifice Get ready for the Brimstone
Get the blisters on the ice
The power of the spirit was the final sacrifice Someone pulling me out to go back to my flesh
Or I'm going insane
Neither wanted to roar in the fiery ways Can't you see all the souls, are we suffer and howl
In our need to know pain?
Centaur is taking its toll, living life in Hades Oh, I see you standing all
Shout of castigation now
You wanna burn no more
So pull us out, out, out Get ready for the Brimstone
Get the blisters on the ice
The power of the spirit was the final sacrifice Get ready for the Brimstone
Get the blisters on the ice
The power of the spirit was the final sacrifice Get ready Get ready for the Brimstone
Get the blisters on the ice
The power of the spirit was the final sacrifice Get ready for the Brimstone
Get the blisters on the ice
The power of the spirit was the final sacrifice Get ready for the Brimstone
Get the blisters on the ice
Get ready for the Brimstone
Get the blisters on the ice Get ready
