Out Of Reach

Reamonn

I see a smile that lights a million
I'll hold your hand tonight
I'll wait with stars shining on me
I know it's timeAnd when will we learn to keep
And when will we walk so deep
And when will we love again
You are still out of reachAnd I'll scream these valleys down
And I'll wake this mind
And I'll make this world turn on it's knees
And I'll make you mineAnd when will we learn to see
And when will we take defeat
And when will we love again
You are still out of reachI know this pain inside
Will set a love alight
These feelings they burn like coal
You've trenched it in your soulAnd when will learn to love
And when will we once agree
And when will we love again
You are still out of reach
