

Shades of Grey

Happy Campers

You're blaming me and I'm blaming you and there isn't one damn thing that either of us can do cause you think I get all the breaks I think all you do is take, we both end up empty handed, no one takes the cake There's a fine line between black and white, on the outside we appear as different as day and night but deep inside our souls we share the same pain we're both at the bottom of the heap and it's drivin us insane United we stand and divided we fall and we keep on falling til there's nothing left at all, but still you stand on the other side, even though we're in the same boat, I guess it'll always be that way tour hands around my throat.
There's a fine line between truth and lies keep in mind the next time you hear you're families cries live your whole life filled with hate you have nothing to gain we both got to make it in this world and it's driving us insane
