Waiting so long

4bitten

Did you get all you want, did you see the whole show?
Where's all the fun, that we used to know?
As the memories fade way out of view
Love those old days to come back to you
I've been waiting so long
I'm not feeling so strong
Did you say what you mean, did you mean what you say?
About this new scene, is it really that way?
The blindness goes on, the blindness goes on
You say it's not so, but what do you know?
I've been waiting so long
I'm not feeling so strong
Nothing new, it's just the same old thing
You got me singing those old blues again
Angry music, words of fire, painted faces filled with rage
And even then they sound so tired, I must be set in my old ways
If this world is unimpressive, it's been that way for quite awhile
I don't need no heavy message, just turn me on and make me smile
Yea, I've been waiting such a long time, just for something to ring true
Now I'd rather taste the old wine than mess around with something new
The blindness goes on, the blindness goes on
The blindness goes on, the blindness goes on
The blindness goes on, the blindness goes on
The blindness goes on
