

Dead End Road

Tyler Barham

Mmm..Verse:

There's a patch of wild daisies by the 4 way stop and plenty of time for a head game,
"She loves me, she loves me not" I swore last night I'd never come this way again
But here I am about to give in for the millionth time and kicking my self 'cause I Chorus:
I keep turning down this dead end road
Stuck in a rut and baby I don't know What it is that makes me wanna go right back to where my heart broke down before Always hoping that it might lead

some place better for her and me
Turn on my blinker and here I go Looking for love down a dead end road
Verse:
If I could only get this truck to make a left hand turn

I'd drive across the first bridge light a match and let it burn I'm starting to think its not about her anyway this holdin' on to somethin' that will never change Its just a warnin' sign For somethin' else deep inside
Chorus:
I keep turning down this dead end road
Stuck in a rut and baby I don't know
What it is that makes me wanna go
right back to where my heart broke down before Always hoping that it might lead
some place better for her and me

Looking for love down a dead end road
Bridge:
Well maybe someday I'll pick up enough speed make it to the interstate and finally be free of this misery you see
Chorus:

I keep turning down this dead end road
Stuck in a rut and baby I don't know What it is that makes me love you so you've broken my heart so many times Always hoping that it might lead
some place better for you and me
Turn on my blinker and here I go
Looking for love down a dead end road
Always hoping that it might lead
some place better for you and me
Turn on my blinker and here I go

Looking for love down a dead end road
