No Longer Now

Sense Field

This is no longer now, this is a place to come
Far and away from an ocean aquarium
And I, during a long and wasted time
I once heard a girl say, "We're the kids of the sun"I believe so make me a liar
If you think you can prove
The souls of all ran out of daylight
Into the light of nightLove is evolution by decision, a divine intervention
I am the solution and the problem, oh yeah yeah yeahYes, I can feel it now, the mechanisms hum
Far and away from a vision of myself
And I, I'm doing that old familiar dance
In all directions, oh, can't you feel it now?Finally ask her, finally ask her, finally ask her
Ran out of questions, finally ask her, finally ask her
Ran out of daylight into the answer
There's no solution for the disasterLove is evolution by decision, a divine intervention
I am the solution and the problem, oh yeah yeah yeah
Love is evolution by decision, a divine intervention
I am the solution and the problem, oh yeah yeah yeah
