

Cinderella

Britney Spears

I used to be your girlfriend and I know I did it well
Oh yes, you know it's true
You called me Cinderella, all you had to do was yell
And I'd be there for you
Here I am, so try to forgive me
I don't believe in fairytales
Here we are, with nothin' but honesty
I've had enough, I'm not gonna stay
(Aah)
I'm sorry for runnin' away like this
So now I'm sorry, I've already made my wish
Aaa aah, but Cinderella's got to go
From time to time I tried to tell you just what was on my mind
You told me not today
Come back, do that, where's Cinderella at
Was all you had to say
Here I am, so try to forgive me
I don't believe in fairytales
Here we are, with nothin' but honesty
I've had enough, I'm not gonna stay
(Aah)
I'm sorry for runnin' away like this
So now I'm sorry, I've already made my wish
Aaa aah, but Cinderella's got to go
I'm sorry, just tryin' to live my life
Don't worry, you're gonna be alright
But Cinderella's got to go

I used to say I want you
You cast me in your spell
I did everything you wanted me to
But now I shall break free from all your lies
I won't be blind, you see
(Aah)
My love, it can't be sacrificed
(Aah)
I won't return to thee
I'm so sorry
I've already made up my mind

I won't return to thee
I'm sorry to say, I'm runnin' away now
(I'm runnin')
So don't worry, you will be all right
(Right)
I'm runnin' away, I've made up my mind now
(I'm runnin')
You're gonna have to let me go
(Gonna have to let me go)
Yes she's got to go
Oh I'm sorry for runnin' away like this
So now I'm sorry, I've already made my wish
Aaa aah, but Cinderella's got to go
Oh I'm sorry, just tryin' to live my life
Don't worry, you're gonna be alright
But Cinderella's got to go
