Inferno

Ebony Tears

Burning... A nauseating taste
Pointles... Your life is such a waste
Bouncing and battering the beast in my skin
Aggression has come to grow
Forcing my feelings to step out of me
Relentless to the boneVengence dwells inside
Fearless I feast on your lifeScreaming... My body connect with pain
Outrageous... In havoc I shall remain
Raping the cradle a life filled with sin
Forces below I adore
Your soul might be clean but this game you can't win
I'm back into the coreVengence dwells inside
Fearless I feast on your lifeInto inferno
Into inferno I go
