

King of the Ring

Adrenaline Mob

Walking tall towards the ring tell yourself to get ready

Clinch your fists take a breath shifts about to get heavy

Keep running your mouth

Keep running your mouth

You don't know what you just started

Keep running your mouth

Keep running your mouth

You don't know just what you're in for I am king of these roped walls and in this ring of fire you will burn

Feel the wrath the hate the weight my world upon your shoulders

You will feel the hurt

I will make you crawl

Here we go blow by blow

Get 'em up and get ready

Feel the sting hit by hit

Throwing punches so deadly Keep running your mouth

Keep running your mouth

I'm gonna finish what you started

Stop moving around

Stop moving around

Toe to toe and face to face now I am king of these roped walls and in this ring of fire you will burn

Feel the wrath the hate the weight my world upon your shoulders

You will feel the hurt

I will make you crawl

I will make you crawl

I will make you crawl

I will make you crawl

Look where I stand don't you know who I am

I'm the good I'm the bad

I'm the champion

I am the fight

I am wrong I am right

I'm the fear I'm the hate

I'm a friend I'm a foe I am king of these roped walls and in this ring of fire you will burn

Feel the wrath the hate the weight my world upon your shoulders

You will feel the hurt

I will make you crawl

I will make you crawl

I will make you crawl

I will make you crawl

I will make you crawl
