

The Temple In the Underworld

Root

I rush through purple mist
Fury in my eyes / Beast of prey's look
I make my way through shrubs of Skeletons
My target is just around the corner.I weep blood instead of tears
Dust of Eternity covers my face
Windstorm howled its Song of Death
Cacophony Demons turned into everythingAm I dreaming - or awake ?
The Temple is facing me
From the Depths of Infinity it grows
This structure of both Life and DeathYou can never name it
Has been towering here for ages and forever
From mysterious Symbols on the walls
Sap Shemhamforash leaks down
