Reap And Sow

Day Of Fire

I'm sick of walking in your bad dreams
I'm tired of talking up your dancings
It's time for me to take a ride and turn it around
It's time for you to realize that
I'm gonna scream it in your mainstream
I'm gonna take it with the main street
I'm gonna put it in your mind and turn it around
I'm gonna draw it on the line
It's coming around, it's coming around
It's coming, no doubt, I'm gonna see you on the other side
Coming around, it's coming around
It's coming, no doubt
I'm sick of walking on your land mines
I'm sick of falling on your trip lines
I'm gonna take another ride and turn it around
It's time for you to realize that
I'm gonna get out on the last train
I'm gonna catch it in the fast lane
I'm gonna put it in your mind and turn it around
I'm gonna leave it all behind
It's coming around, it's coming around
It's coming, no doubt, I'm gonna see you on the other side
Coming around, it's coming around
It's coming, no doubt
It's coming around, it's coming around
It's coming, no doubt, I'm gonna see you on the other side
Coming around, it's coming around
It's coming, no doubt
I see it coming around
I see it coming around
I see it coming around
At the end of the day
I see it coming around
And it's going away
It's coming around
I see it coming around
It's coming around
It's coming around
It's coming around, it's coming around

It's coming, no doubt, I'm gonna see you on the other side
Coming around, it's coming around
It's coming, no doubt
It's coming around, it's coming around
It's coming, no doubt, I'm gonna see you on the other side
Coming around, it's coming around
It's coming, no doubt
