

Velvet Embracer

Diablo Swing Orchestra

In the mirror angel face with angel hair in an angel cage.
In the mirror violence staged tremble without her embrace.
In the mirror velvet wires dressed her shivers in desire.
Precious silence for the masses.
Blind them, all hope to ashes.
Make way breathe with ease.
Display her thoughts an peace.
The truth in your eyes never should have been so lonely
Breathing in time with the ones who never owned you
Requiem invite them all
In the mirror cracks In their truth
Today she's done, today she's gone
Gently veiled in violent slumber
Eyes forgave, since outnumbered
Save her innocence
Long gone is her scent
The truth in your eyes never should have been so lonely
Breathing in time with the ones who never owned you
Requiem invite them all
Cura, Mortuus, Sanctus, Veritas
