Pine St.

Cold War Kids

The sun burns loud through my window And the morning's bright, so we both go I miss the nights, while they change to dawn Hope to see a floor to lay on But I could never show you the inside of my homeThe bathroom light turns the radio on Hear my best friend's voice over an old friend's song But I could never show you the inside of my home The stairway lights are broken The stairs are almost gone

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/