Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

So many trials and tribulations
But the wiser man am I
Such fixations are fixed on me
I tell you I am sick I'm sick and tired of all the fables
Tired of all the lies
Tired of seeing bullshit walk uphill
Miles and miles If I've done half the shit that's been said about me
Too much and then some
I could have spent the span of twenty lives
Compared to just my one So get off my back, all you slanderers
Just leave me alone
Put your nose back on your face
Where it belongs you fuckin' drone Your life is pure fascination
Your mouth speaks such abominations
Oh, I condemn your allegations
You are a Frankenstein creation It must be weird to live one's life in a self make believe pit
But then I look at mine and then I see
What a pointless one yours is
So crawl back in your hole Yeah, back into your world of make believe
When I see your smiling face you best be prepared to leave
Land of pure untruths I gladly crown your ass the queen
Things you do they're always done so exquisitely Your life is pure fascination
Your mouth speaks such abomination
Oh, I condemn your allegation
You are a Frankenstein creation Kodiak [Incomprehensible]
