Blue-Eyed Blonde

Kaitlin Butts

change the subject avert your eyes you cant sit still but i can see the signs fool me twice,shame on me i put my trust heart where my trust was shaky convinced by your reassuring words trust my mouth has lost its words (chorus) i wish had seen your plan i wish i had just gone
I should have just turned and run cause you were lying all along don't come back around my faith in love is gone go on just go back to your blue eyed blond
blue eyed blond
blue eyed blond

Don't go begging me and ask me for one more chance I've heard your lies And i have danced this dance and don't you turn the tables and say that I made mistakes I didn't give you my heart for you to just break

(chorus)I wish had seen your plan
so go on just go back

(instrumental)

i wish had seen your plan

Wish I had seen your plan wish i had just gone should have just turn in run cause you were lying all along Don't come back around my faith in love is gone so go on and please go back to your blue eyed blonde
