

Kiss of Life (Luke Solomon's Broken Dub)

Friendly Fires

Rub that line out of the sand
I can see you closer
Closer than you'll ever be
Rub that line above the sand
I know you think it's over
Staring out into the sea Don't let go, this could be so perfect
Don't let go, if we hold onto it Rub that line above the sand
Right before the tide comes
Washes you away from me Oh, kiss of life
Oh, kiss of life Could you wave goodbye to sun?
The sea, the stars, the waves, the tide?
The wails inside, that life has died.
But all you need is a kiss of life Rub that line out of the sky
I can feel the night crawl
A broken drum and tambourine
Rub that line out of the sky
I can see the clouds form
Taking shape in front of me Don't let go, this could be so easy
Don't let go, if you hold on to me Rub that line out of the sky
Right before the sun falls Kiss of life Oh, kiss of life
Oh, kiss of life Could you wave goodbye to sun?
The sea, the stars, the waves, the tide?
The wails inside, that life has died
But all you need is a kiss of life Could you wave goodbye to sun?
The sea, the stars, the waves, the tide?
The wails inside, that life has died
But all you need is a kiss of life Oh, kiss of life
Oh, kiss of life A thousand butterflies, from your lips to mine
A thousand butterflies, from your lips to mine
A thousand butterflies, from your lips to mine
A thousand butterflies, from your lips to mine Kiss of life
