

Isle of Evermore

Avantasia

Muse: From a frozen world will you take me over All alone, sweet embrace Leave the place I can't abide no more Aaron: Take a look at ourselves
Afraid to get closer
Will the predermination drive us to a distant shore Muse: The tender velvet gown of destination left behind
Both: I'm wide awake
I'm on my way to evermore Muse: And I turn around to fading shores
I'll sail on through this opening door Both: Wide awake onto the Isle Of Evermore
Muse: I'm dead to the world
You blindfold my eyes while you're killing what I'm yearning for Muse: You just see what your eyes have been told to tell you Falling down to the ground
How come you ask if what you feel is true Aaron: I'm staring at the maze and let it paralyze me Watch it come alive and burn me out until I'm coming through The tender velvet gown of slumber will just leave me breathing Both: Wide awake I'm on my way to evermore Muse: And I turn around to fading shores
I'll sail on through this opening door Both: Wide awake onto the Isle Of Evermore
I'm dead to the world
You blindfold my eyes Muse: while you're killing what I'm yearning for What I'm yearning for... Both: Wide awake I'm on my way to evermore Aaron: And I turn around to fading shores Both: I'll sail on through this opening door
Wide awake onto the Isle Of Evermore
I'm dead to the world
Blindfold my eyes while you're killing what I'm yearning for
