Now And Forever

K-ci & Jojo

They're always running around
Telling me that I should be free
There's no kind of way
I won't let them take your love away from meYou know, you see I'm not the one who goes on Speculation hearsay and gossip
But I'm a firm believer
In trusting caring and lovingMy love for you is so timeless
It's deeper than the depth of emotion
And everyday goes by, I'm finding
The reason that I love you more and moreNow and forever, will I love you and be true
Now and forever, will I keep what we have new
I will cherish, adore you, trust, give my all to you
Now and forever, will I, will I love you, you, you, you, you, I'll love youI'm not interested in starting all over again
To give you up on someone elses words it's not something I'd do
You see you can tell a tree by the, by the fruit it bears
And from where I'm standing you see my field is yieldingWish we could sail away on the ocean
Float away on midnight dreams, baby
And we don't need a magic potion
So we can live inside our dreamsNow and forever, will I love you and be true
Now and forever, will I keep what we have new
I will cherish, adore you, trust, give my all to you
Now and forever, will I, I will keep loving you, baby, I will only love youSince you're everything I ever want in a lover
You're everything I ever need in a friend, yes you are You're the shoulder that I'm leaning and depending on, baby
And I could never hurt you, no, you're everything to meNow and forever, will I love you and be true
Now and forever, will I keep what we have new
I will cherish, adore you, trust, give my all to you
Now and forever, will I, I will, I will, I'll love you, baby, baby, babyNow and forever, will I love you and be true
Now and forever, will I keep what we have new
I will cherish, adore you, trust, give my all to you
Now and forever, will INow and forever, will I love you and be true
Now and forever, will I keep what we have new
I will cherish, adore you, trust, give my all to you
