

Forever So

Husky

Twinkling sky, fresh fallen snow
Tonight is cold, don't let me go
The sky is clear and we both know
The night is fast

Lipstick smile, mascara eyes
Remember me until you die
When she laughs I ask her why
Cause time is fast.

Come to me now
Morning's here
Scattered remnants
Cigarettes and beer

Don't ask why, why, why

Look out east, the morning glow
Watch me westward as I go
We shall be forever so
Looking back
