

New for You

Reeve Carney

I can't forget you, I cant deny
If I surrendered
You'll hold me and never let go
Your loves and memory moving as oneMy hearts a secret under your tongue
Crying forever
Deep in your eyesit's always victims of you and I
They must fly into the taillight
Under the truth
But everythings new for youAnd I would die a thousand deaths
But to defend your happiness, My Love
Yours is like a wave upon an open shore
Everytime you fall I only want you more
If virtues and the suffering of the heart I know
Our love's a teardrop sent from the skyMy Life was a shadow
Until i knew
It's sorrows a silent crying for you
I stand defenseless deep in your eyesStrong, Give me your love.
I'm alive when you want,
Everything changes everythings new
Baby, Im new for you
