Coffee Break

Zeds Dead

Close the door when they come in
They can feel their whole world spin
Smoking plastic shards they'll never be scared of me
(I won't drown)
And when they change themselves they are never afraid of me
Summer's out for you
There's no time for you
It is not what it seems
You're awake in your dreams
With lithium, you'll never be sad again
But you can't sleep with her
It's not by choice, is it?
I hope you never come back
There's someone else in here
Please tell me why
Please tell me when
It's not by choice
