Bad Habit

Sarah Hudson

They always said you were unhealthy
Wouldn't be there for me, but I knew different
They always said that you would break me
Bend me and forsake me, I wouldn't listenI knew better than that, I knew just where it's at
And it was, but it's not anymore

And I'm not as sure as I was beforeNow I got a bad habit I just can't break I can't shake it, it's already much too late

I'm standing naked with my beautiful mistake

A bad habit and it just won't go awayYou were magical and mystic

Tangled up and twisted and oh, so tragic

Maybe that was the attraction

Drove me to distraction, but I had to have itI got carried away, what else can I say?

There I was, I still am

And I don't understand why I'm stuck

In the palm of your handI got a bad habit I just can't break

I can't shake it, it's already much too late

I'm standing naked with my beautiful mistake

A bad habit and it just won't go away, ohWhy do I need you like this?

Why don't I try to resist?

I can't just flip a switch and watch you fadeNow I got a bad habit I just can't break

I can't shake it, it's already much too late

I'm standing naked with my beautiful mistake

A bad habit and it just won't go awayNow I got a bad habit I just can't quit

I can't kick it, I want more and more of it

I'm standing naked with my beautiful mistake

A bad habit, hope it never goes away
I just can't quit, I can't kick it
