Aegean Shores

Pagan's Mind

Reflecting who I am
I see myself again
I see myself in different lives
Time is running short for me
Like they cry out in my eye
Inside the walls my waiting cell[Bridge:]
Time goes on and see - miracle set free
In my mind, there's someone calling[Chorus:]
Somewhere I'll fly away
High on wings, I'm gazing from the sky
In silent emptiness
I close my eyesTonight in darker symphonies
And serenades I cry
Break through the walls who capture me
Let my spirit cry out in my life!
From the sinking land in pain
Saviours from the sky[Bridge:]
Time goes on and see - miracle set free
In my mind, there's someone callingCalling for the cry to mesmerize
Through time[Chorus:]
Somewhere I'll fly away
High on wings, I'm gazing from the sky
In silent emptiness
I close my eyes [x2]With my mind, somewhere else I'm waiting
High on wings, I'm gazing from the sky [x2]Await the Aegean shores
