

Unshatter Me

Saliva

Unshatter me
Jagged little pieces of the love you took from us
Scattered like the ashes of my heart you burned to dust
Broken doesn't come close
To how you left me when you let go
When you're away
When you're gone
I'm alone, I'm afraid, I'm a ghost
With no one to haunt
But me
Im talking to the voices in my head
Lying with the demons in my bed
Where you use to be
Unshatter me
Unshatter me
Kneel down and put me back together fix me like before
You crush me when you touch me then I spill out on the floor
Broken doesn't come close
To how you left me when you let go
When you're away
When you're gone
I'm alone, I'm afraid, I'm a ghost
With no one to haunt
But me
Im talking to the voices in my head
Lying with the demons in my bed
Where you use to be
Unshatter me
Unshatter me
When you're away
When you're gone
I'm alone, I'm afraid, I'm a ghost
With no one to haunt
But me
Im talking to the voices in my head
And lying with the demons in my bed
Where you use to be
Unshatter me
Unshatter me
Unshatter me
Unshatter
