Pain

Tiger Army

Regret sits heavy in your chest until sometimes-it gets so hard to breathe Sometimes it just wont go away,and you start to feel it'll never leave
And when you think back on those times it seems so close,just beyond your reach but the past vanishes like smoke from a cigarette in the night breezePlease stop this pain Hurt for so long pain,Hurt for so long
I've felt this way for so longHow is it that things turnd out this way?
What you hold most dear has come and gone Since the time that everything was right and Now it just feels wrong, oh so wrong
And your still dreaming of a time
When the day will come that was meant to be
And your still dreaming of a way
To reach that place that you've never beenPlease stop this pain
Hurt for so long
Pain,Hurt for so long
I've felt this way for so longPain
Hurt for so long
Pain
Hurt for so long
Pain
Hurt for so long
Pain
Hurt for so long
I've felt this way for so long
