The Fury

æ—¥æ¯”é‡Žå‰‡å½¦

Forward on, just go on Direction less, rush for close by Before species specific-motion
No change for equilibrium, stopFetid, persistent stench of the race
Rushes in every slot
Sticking all together into a mass
I hate you, I hate us
You know what I mean? Fuck offThis world stigma cries out on your forehead
Anti-God prepares your own personal void
The only way to equilibrium Kill yourself, but
