

Spiralling (Circus Tour 1987)

Erasure

I try hard to put you out of my mind
Every night alone I'm thinking about you
How can I avoid this pain without you?
I won't cry, I won't be sorry no more
I know that this is something I'll get over
Maybe I could learn to love another
It's just a matter of time, a matter of time. Just because I lock myself in my room
It doesn't mean that I'm afraid to talk to Those people I know that might have seen you
You'll return, I keep reminding myself
I won't look back, won't regret a single moment
I'm going to mend this heart inside you've broken
It's just a matter of time, a matter of time
It's just a matter of time, a matter of time.
