

Queen of Hearts

We the Kings

When the world fall into pieces
You'll be the one voice of reason
When I can't face all my demons
You are the one I believe in Through the thunder and the rain
Together we fall together we fly away
Hold me closely
You are my one and only You're the queen of hearts
Make me your king
You'll be the diamond
I got the ring We could rule the world
Own everything
I'll be the Jay-Z
You'll be the B'Cause you've got me upside down
I know you inside out
They'll call me crazy
But baby you saved me
Can't you see? When the world fall into pieces
You'll be the one voice of reason
When I can't face all my demons
You are the one I believe in Through the thunder and the rain
Together we fall together we fly away
Hold me closely
You are my one and only Oh oh oh oh oh
One and only
Oh oh oh oh oh
You are my one and only You're Mona Lisa
I'm Da Vinci
The smile on your face
Is all that I need You could be my wild
I'd be your west
You know that I'd be your
Bulletproof vest
'Cause I've got you upside down
You've got me completely inside out They call me crazy
But baby you saved me
Can't you see When the world fall into pieces
You'll be the one voice of reason
When I can't face all my demons
You are the one I believe in Through the thunder and the rain

Together we fall together we fly away
Hold me closely
You are my one and only Oh oh oh oh oh
One and only
Oh oh oh oh oh
You are my one and only You're everywhere I want to be Even when you're far from me
I still hold you closer
Than you know Well even if you wanna leave
I'd let you take that part of me
I know that it would kill me
But I'd swear I'd let you go When the world fall into pieces
You'll be the one voice of reason
When I can't face all my demons
You are the one I believe in Through the thunder and the rain
Together we fall together we fly away
Hold me closely
You are my one and only Oh oh oh oh oh
One and only
Oh oh oh oh oh
You are my one and only (Oh yeah, that's the one)
