Tangled Up

Shayne Ward

You've got me tangled up in you
You've got me tangled up in youI must be trippin' it's true
I'm losin' hold of my cool
And I really ought to let you goDon't even make any sense
It's gettin' crazy intense
Why you wanna make me lose control?I just gotta let you know
I can't seem to let you go
Now, it's gettin' personalGirl what you do to me
It's crazy new to me
It's gettin' through to meI can't deny that it's true
You've got me tangles up in you
I tell myself that it's wrong
That when you smile at me I'm goneThere ain't no way to escape
Trapped in this beautiful mistake
The situation ain't cool
You've got me tangled up in you, babyYou've got me tangled up in you
You've got me tangled up in youYou're playing games with my head
I should be leavin' instead
But I'm fallin' faster all the timeYou lick your lips and you smile
I'm helpless just like a child
And I'm tryin' not to cross the lineI just gotta let you know
I can't seem to let you go
Now, it's gettin' personalGirl, what you do to me?
It's crazy new to me
It's gettin' through to meI can't deny that it's true
You've got me tangles up in you
I tell myself that it's wrong
That when you smile at me I'm goneThere ain't no way to escape
Trapped in this beautiful mistake
The situation ain't cool
You've got me tangled up in youIt's wrong that I just can't walk away
It's wrong that I can't find words to say
You know that you've got me hypnotized
I'm mesmerized love's in your eyesIt's wrong that I just can't walk away
It's wrong that I can't find words to say
You know that you've got me hypnotized
I'm mesmerized love's in your eyesI can't deny that it's true
You've got me tangles up in you
I tell myself that it's wrong

That when you smile at me I'm goneThere ain't no way to escape
Trapped in this beautiful mistake
The situation ain't cool
You've got me tangled up in you
