Further Down the Line

Mason Lee

You're broken down
You're beaten up
You're checking out
You've had enough
The times are hard
And life is tough
That's all they say
You don't know where to turn
Try to fly but you crash and burn
And every day is a lesson learned
It seems the hard way

You know the night is darkest
Just before the dawn
So, darling rise on up
And try to hold on

Cause I can hear that train a'coming
A little further down the line
And I can hear that whistle blowing
One more time
Oh, I can hear that train a'coming
A little further down the line
And I can hear that whistle blowing
One more time
It's going to be alright

So tell your sister, tell your brother
Tell your father, tell your mother
Scream it loud, to any other
It's on its way
And it won't stop
That no sign
It'll leave your cares behind
And I know in my heart, it's here to stay

Oh, I can hear that train a'coming
A little further down the line
And I can hear that whistle blowing
One more time

Oh, I can hear that train a'coming
A little further down the line
And I can hear that whistle blowing
One more time
It's going to be alright

I know it's hard to find a reason to smile
But darling don't lose heart
It's only for a little while

Cause I can hear that train a'coming
A little further down the line
And I can hear that whistle blowing
One more time
Oh, I can hear that train a'coming
A little further down the line
And I can hear that whistle blowing
One more time
It's going to be alright

Further down the line
It's going to be alright
