

Caribbean Blues

Juan Luis Guerra

Many cages many rules many battles in my blues Many days without a clue but, you came and turned me loose Call you when things don't go my way you have the world that hits my brain Heal me with your touch, anoint me because your love is all I need
It's all about you
You're the one who lives inside my mind
a message falling from the sky and a revelation of the moon
It's all about you
You are the one who stays and never goes a solitary spotlight in my show
You are the one who plays the violin in my Caribbean blues
I've got the habit of your smile my dwelling place around your heart Heal me with your touch, anoint me
because your love is all I need
It's all about you
You're the one who lives inside my mind
a message falling from the sky
and a revelation of the moon
It's all about you
You are the one who stays and never goes
a solitary spotlight in my show
You are the one who plays the violin in my
Caribbean blues
Por la marea, las olas llegan
Por la marea Searching in the evening stars above the ocean falling constellations you are the only light I know Water takes a river far beyond the mountains In every road I take now you're the only way that I know
It's all about you
You're the one who lives inside my mind
a message falling from the sky
and a revelation of the moon
It's all about you
You are the one who stays and never goes
a solitary spotlight in my show
You are the one who plays the violin in my Caribbean blues
