Ray Of Light

Jeff Deyo

There was darkness in my soul
Till I turned my heart toward You
Now I worship at Your feet
As I boldly come to Your throne
To bless Your holy nameI was empty in my heart
Till You filled my with Your power
Now I praise You more and more
Until on that day, with no more wait
We'll see You face to face, yeahYou have become my ray of light
When I knew my sun was fading
You are the source of all my soul
You're the pure fire penetrating
You have become my ray of lightThere was blindness in my eyes
Till You touched me with Your hand
Now a passion burns within
To be swept away in Your embrace
Forever and a day, yeahYou have become my ray of light
When I knew my sun was fading
You are the source of all my soul
You're the pure fire penetrating
You have become my ray of light, ohI lift up my heart to You
I lift up my hands to You
I give all my praise to You, JesusI lift up my life to You
I lift up this song to You
I give all my praise to You, ohYou have become my ray of light
When I knew my sun was fading
You are the source of all my soul
You're the pure fire penetratingYou have become my ray of light
When I knew my sun was fading
You are the source of all my soul
You're the pure fire penetratingYou have become my ray of light
When I knew my sun was fading
You are the source of all my soul
You're the pure fire penetrating
You have become my ray of light
