

Love Carries On

MÃªIÃ©e

If I had more time with you
Things would surely change, I'd make your problems fade.
If fate were different
You'd be here.
Just know the past is thorough, why can't you break away?

I first fell over, falling over you
On broken glass some things aren't made to last.
Street signs that we passed,
She said you're driving way too slow but I don't mind.

Know your love carries on
And follows you back to my heart.
Know your love carries on
And follows you back to me
Even though, the ends unknown.
We can make this unpaved road our home.

Your ivory arm with dark tattoo
A painful memory that never fades away.
Now blue skies are changing into gray
This cynic's lullaby reflects the last refrain.

Yea she said her father never really cared
While growing up he always disappeared.
Poor angel eyes, you're scared.
We never stood a chance, but girl we took the dare.

Know your love carries on
And follows you back to my heart.
Know your love carries on
And follows you back to me
Even though, the ends unknown.
We can make this unpaved road our home.

No! You're keeping me away
But it's OK, it's OK.
We all tend to break the rules
We all make mistakes.
It's not too late to get it right.

(Know your love carries on)
Know your love carries on
(Know your love carries on)
Know your love carries on
(Know your love carries on)
Yea your love carries on
(Know your love carries on)
Know your love carries
Know your love carries on
