

I'll Be

Georg Levin

I'll be I'll be

I'll be true to you wherever we'll be going through
You'll neither see me overaction nor tryin' to keep my cool
I'll be as honest as one can
Cause I wanna be your man

I'll be strong by your side or neat at your feet
I'll be your superman or lapdog whatever you may need
I'll be your lover and your friend
Your wish is my command

Long uncertain years have passed until I came to see at last
That you're my baby
I threw away the things that hindered me blinded me finally
You got me cravin'

For your love
That same old love
I'll be comin' on strong
I'll be singin' that song
I'll be movin' on and on
I'll be I'll be I'll be

There! Wherever you are
No place in this world would be too far
I'll give you everything got no pride got no fear
And if you happen to need more at times still i will stand

There's nothing in my life
I would not sacrifice

I'll be I'll be

Gone! Whenever you want me to
I'll be lovin' and carin' and doin' everything that
You think I should do
I'll be payin' all your bills forget that things called guilt
There won't be any dream left unfulfilled

All I wanna do is to take part

I wish that I'd been there right from the start
So let me be your life's ghostwriter
Or should I rather say co-writer?

Lyrics submitted by saeko-doll.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>