No Woman

Blaine Larsen

Five hours of football one afternoon
Three nights of poker dragging in past two
Four years of trying to make it last
Even a fool could do the math
No woman is gonna hang around
For some man who can't figure it out
Do the numbers, it all adds up to
No woman, no woman for you
One of seven boxes, one Uhall truck
Three brawny men a loadin' it up
One thousand "I'm sorry's" ten minutes too late
One fed up girl on the interstate
No woman is gonna hang around
For some man who can't figure it out
Do the numbers, it all adds up to
No woman, no woman for you
Congratulations Einstein
Look at what you've done
You've solved the equation
For two minus one
No woman is gonna hang around
For some man who can't figure it out
Do the numbers, it all adds up to
No woman, no woman for you
No woman, no woman for you
