Sometime In the Morning

Micky Dolenz

Sometime in the morning,
A simple thought may occur to you,
And you'll hold her,
And tell her all the things,
you never told her.Your love has shown me things,
I never thought I would see.
I didn't know.
It could be done so easily,
Now I know.
You're where it is for me.Sometime in the evening,
You're sitting there by the fireside,
And she'll touch you,
And you'll realize how much you never knew before,
How much you couldn't see.
You didn't know.
It could be done so easily,
Now you know(now you know),
She's all a girl could be.Now(now)in her childlike eyes,
You see the beauty there,(you know)
You know it was always there,
You need no longer wear,
A disguise.Sometime in the morning,
Sometime(sometime),
Sometime in the morning,
You'll just reach out and she will be there.
Close as the summer air.
Close as the summer air.Sometime in the morning,
She will be there.
Sometime in the morning,
She will be there...
