Lost In Time

Throwdown

Sometimes so many things get lost in the fractions of time. Sometimes so many things we just forget til they're gone. GONE! Staring so hard, you can't see, right fucking in front of you. I think I'm holoding on too fight. Lost in the fractions of time, lost in the fractions of time, and I'm-GONE. Losing my nerve yet again. Patience of mind wearing thin. Lost in the fractions time, losing my fucking mind. Don't regret what you said. Forget about the take backs it was hell worth it. HEY HEY. I give my love to the end. Love to the end.
