The New Zero

Rasputina

He has agreed to take me
To the ice hotel from the magazine
What we will need is a gleaming key
Made of ice as well by the finest ice machineIt's there that no one will stare
At your jaws and your long fur
The claws in your fingers
It's in the past when the passerby laughed
At your strange way of speaking
Your batteries leaking, oh noOh God no
They don't know the new zeroOh God no
They don't know the new zeroUniforms worn so leisurely
The reindeer skins the privacy
How was he born? He's asking me
Flapping his fins very impressivelyIt's there that no one will stare
At your jaws and your long fur
The claws in your fingers
It's in the past when the passerby laughed
At your strange way of speaking
Your batteries leaking, oh no(He has agreed)
Oh God no
(To take me)
They don't know the new zero
(To the ice hotel)(He has agreed)
Oh God no
(To take me)
They don't know the new zero
(To the ice hotel)I really don't care and neither does he
If this hotel melts into the sea
Polished and so rare, this is the way that we see
The coldness helps, it's our favorite remedyI really don't care and neither does he
If this hotel melts into the sea
Polished and so rare, this is the way that we see
The coldness helps, it's our favorite remedyIt's there that no one will stare
At your jaws and your long fur
The claws in your fingers
It's in the past when the passerby laughed
At your strange way of speaking
Your batteries leaking, oh no(He has agreed)
Oh God no

(To take me)
They don't know the new zero
(To the ice hotel)(He has agreed)
Oh God no
(To take me)
They don't know the new zero
(To the ice hotel)
