Wizard

Russell Brower

Wizard in the lowly lowly depths of the sea
Will you help me find love
Please hear my plea

Goddess she moves slowly slowly
Across the room
He stands there wildly smiling like winter in bloom

This the everlasting moment binds me to you
This the everlasting moment binds me to you

I cannot comprehend
I do not understand
What do I think
Why not have another sip of that marvellous drink

Mermaid in the lovely lovely heights of the sky
Won't you aid me in finding the one for whom I cry
So many tears (oh) fall from my eyes over you
So many years I've been in disguise
Help me through

This the everlasting moment binds me to you
This the everlasting moment binds me to you
